A bone marrow transplant is in his future but he must raise $14,000 to cover his portion of the cost in addition to the expenses he is continually incurring during chemotherapy. His wife, Lisa, went to work in an effort to provide for their family and eventually provide for insurance for herself and their two young boys, Zachary and Joshua. Family and friends are assisting in the care of the boys.

Gunars “Gunny” Cakste underwent open heart surgery to repair an aortic aneurysm and replace the valve in December. While his hospital bills have been met, he will be unable to work for several months thus will have no income. Gunny is husband of Balinda and father to Eric and Bethany.
